

Building Bridges: Achieving Health in All Policies Through Cross-Sector Collaborations

WHEN: Thursday, April 10th, 10:30 – 11:30 am

WHERE: Portland State Office Building - Room 1B

800 NE Oregon Street

Portland, OR 97232

Call in number: 1-888-363-4734, participant code: 295577

Join our panel of experts as we explore successful models of public health partnerships

This panel will explore three innovative cross sector collaborations with public health: education, health care, and transportation. Dana Hargunani will talk about the public health collaboration with new Early Learning Hubs and the state's collective impact approach to improving children's readiness for school. Teri Thalhofer will outline collaboration possibilities with primary care clinics, and opportunities to interact with rural health clinics to create efficiencies. Michael Tynan will talk about how transportation is intrinsically linked with human health and social determinants of health, and give an overview of how the Oregon Department of Transportation and the Oregon Health Authority, Public Health Division are working together to improve the link between public health and transportation policies and programs in Oregon.

Facilitator: Lillian Shirley, Public Health Director, Oregon Health Authority

Panel Speakers:

Dana Hargunani, Child Health Director, Oregon Health Authority

Teri Thalhofer, Director, North Central Public Health District

Michael Tynan, Policy Officer, Oregon Health Authority

For more information, please visit <http://www.oregonpublichealth.org/public-health-week>

If you require ADA accommodations to attend this event, please call 503-719-5600 by April 1, 2014.

This event is part of National Public Health Week, www.nphw.org.

